

FORMER TORRANCE GIRL TO WED IN WASHINGTON

Enroute to Washington, D. C. are Captain and Mrs. Thomas Ramskill, USA, of 1604 W. 220th street, who will attend the wedding of their daughter, Joag Ramskill Obidine to Roland Andre Rush to be performed Monday in the Church of the Annunciation, Captain Ramskill, attached to the National Guard Reserve, will give his daughter in marriage.

The bride-elect, who will be gowned in champagne satin and carry a prayerbook and a rosary, will be attended by her classmates at Columbia University, Miss Janie Toy and Miss Maidah Mazdah, the latter, a native of Iran.

Albert Rush of New York will attend his brother as best man. The lovely bride received her diploma from Torrance High School, attended UCLA, and majored in fine arts at University of California at Berkeley, where she was graduated before entering Columbia University, New York, for a course in occupational therapy. She received her diploma Monday.

She met Mr. Rush, a former Redondo resident, while both were students at Berkeley. He is presently serving with the Department of Interior in Washington, in which city they will make their home.

During World War II the bride-elect served with the WAVES as a recruiter, first class.

Chairman Tells Progress Of YWCA Membership Drive

Mrs. Mary Ulmer, membership chairman, announces that the YWCA membership drive now has just 10 days to run before the tea will take place Sunday, April 1, honoring all new members in the lovely home of Mrs. John E. Miller.

Those joining the YWCA this week were: Mrs. Anna Bellwood, Mrs. Marjorie King, Mrs. George W. Leech, Mrs. Charles Schultz, Jr., Mrs. B. C. Harrington, Mrs. Helen Huston, Miss Louise T. Cook, Mrs. John DeVico, Mrs. Delta Miller, Mrs. Sylvia Bolander, Mrs. Milford Bauman, Mrs. Homer Schooley.

The YWCA is a name that has had meaning for millions for almost a hundred years. It's a place for the young, who, as they grow older, help the young who come after them... a place for women to fulfill their needs and give purpose to their lives.

With our own YWCA building

nearing completion at Carson and Del Amo there are even greater opportunities to members. There will be a place to work and play with friends and strangers who will become friends. There will be the sign of the blue triangle symbolizing body, mind and spirit and the chance to achieve physical health, mental growth and moral strength derived from the Christian way of life. If you wish to become a member of this association call Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, program director, at Torrance 1356. The dues are a nominal $1.50 per year.

Elementary PTA Elects Mrs. H. E. Carr Leader

Mrs. Hartley E. Carr was elected to serve as president of Torrance Elementary PTA at a meeting Thursday afternoon at the school.
